

CLAIMS

Claim number 1

What I claim as my invention is : America & Europe reputation membership association licenses the value of its reputation uniquely to overseas manufacturers, enterprises, companies, representatives.. to use America & Europe reputation membership emblems in their letters-head, catalogs.. for exchange of reasonable annual membership fees to be paid by these companies.. to the association without handling business transaction.

Claim number 2

What I claim as my invention is : The elements and structure of U.S. & Europe reputation membership association or any other companies with the same policy; modification of the structure to the same effect, contents as well as illustrations of the invention in these documents, the invention composes of business company, function of this policy, overseas manufacturers, enterprises, representatives, companies.., membership statements, America & Europe reputation membership emblems or equivalents, office machineries; computers, scanners, copiers, fax machines, telephones and necessary requirements of business office..

Claim number 3 (New)

What I claim as my invention is : Combining America & Europe reputation membership reputation licensing to foreign manufacturers, enterprises, companies, representatives etc., with any other systems, policies etc using other names functioning to the same effect, overseas companies including foreign manufacturers, enterprises, companies, representatives, business groups, organizations and any other business with employees etc., membership emblems including membership hallmarks, symbols, badges, seals, signs, representations, logos, stamps, marks, trademarks, flags, figures, token etc., membership statements including membership certificates, statements, authorizations, and any other business documents etc., the invention be used everywhere.

CLAIMS

Claim number 1

What I claim as my invention is : America & Europe reputation membership association licenses the value of its reputation uniquely to overseas manufacturers, enterprises, companies, representatives.. to use America & Europe reputation membership emblems in their letters-head, catalogs.. for exchange of reasonable annual membership fees to be paid by these companies.. to the association without handling business transaction.

Claim number 2

What I claim as my invention is : The elements and structure of U.S. & Europe reputation membership association or any other companies with the same policy; modification of the structure to the same effect, contents as well as illustrations of the invention in these documents, the invention composes of business company, function of this policy, overseas manufacturers, enterprises, representatives, companies.., membership statements, America & Europe reputation membership emblems or equivalents, office machineries; computers, scanners, copiers, fax machines, telephones and necessary requirements of business office..

Claim number 3

What I claim as my invention is : Combining America & Europe reputation membership reputation licensing to foreign manufacturers, enterprises, companies, representatives etc., with any other systems, policies etc using other names functioning to the same effect, overseas companies including foreign manufacturers, enterprises, companies, representatives, business groups, organizations and any other business with employees etc., membership emblems including membership hallmarks, symbols, badges, seals, signs, representations, logos, stamps, marks, trademarks, flags, figures, token etc., membership statements including membership certificates, statements, authorizations, and any other business documents etc., the invention be used everywhere.